Secretary's Report.

THE fifth year of the Hospital's work began, I regret to say, very sadly; within a few days of our Annual Meeting our Honorary Treasurer, the late Henry Evans, Esq., of Escuan, died. This was a great blow to us all. Mr. Evans had taken a leading part in the Hospital scheme since its inception, and he did not forget its future, as is shewn by his extremely generous legacy of £1,500. This legacy has not yet been paid. I should like to suggest to the subscribers that we endow a Bed in the Hospital in his name, so that his memory may live in the annals of the institution.

Our next heavy loss was our Chairman, Mr. William Roberts, of Braichyrhenllysg, Bryncrug, who also died suddenly a few weeks later. He was always a valued member of the Committee, and did most useful work in Bryncrug, taking a leading part in initiating the Dysynni Valley Sheep Dog Trials in aid of the Hospital which have proved so successful.

Mr. Richard Ellis, late of Tanybryn Street, Abergynolwyn, who was a staunch supporter of the Hospital in his district, died last April, leaving a legacy of £20 to the Hospital. All honour to his memory.

Our former Matron left us early in the year, and I am very pleased to report that the appointment of Miss Edith Parry has proved entirely satisfactory, and the smoother running of the institution is the result. Our Doctors and Surgeons cannot speak too highly of her ability and attention. With the patients and Staff she is a great favourite.

In reviewing the work of the Hospital you will notice an increase in the number of admissions, as the undermentioned list shews. This means that it is growing in popular favour yearly.

Tonsil and Adenoid: School Clinic, 25: Out-patients, 5.

Deaths 3. Two of these cases were sent from outside our district and were in a hopeless condition on arrival.

X-Ray examinations, 66. The number of cases for X-Ray examination increases yearly. This is not surprising when so many accidents occur on the roads. Many of these cases come from outside our area. The average number of beds always occupied is 5.

ARTIFICIAL SUNLIGHT.—I am sure all subscribers will thank the anonymous donor of an up-to-date Tugstin Arc Lamp for ultra violet rays treatment that was presented to us early in the year. It has already proved its value, and the results obtained after 34 applications to patients are very encouraging. In connection with this and our X-Ray plants I should here like to record our appreciation of the expert knowledge and attention given to us by Mr. Pink.

On turning to the accounts, you will observe that our income this year is less by £154, and our expenditure increased by £33 over the year before. There is a decrease in every item of income with the exception of collections from places of worship. Here we have an increase which is hopeful for future years.

The most notable falling-off in income is that from the Aberdovey collection. Since Mrs. Bible's death we do not seem to have anyone on this Committee willing to take the initiative in organising collections for subscriptions, and the result is that with the exception of Mrs. Hughes, The Crossing, and Mrs. Young, no collecting has been done in this area, with a consequent fall of nearly £40 in income. May I suggest to the subscribers the importance of electing a working Committee. I have nothing but congratulations and thanks for our other local Committees; all are doing excellent work. We all know that owing to the bad weather during the summer months things have been difficult, but nevertheless—Abergynolwyn subscriptions are nearly up to last year's record which is most commendable.

Bryncrug.—The weather marred what no doubt would otherwise have been an equally profitable day as heretofore for the Dysynni Valley Sheep Dog Trials. Thanks are tendered to all concerned in this popular entertainment.

Llanegryn—both this year and last year have organised a good subscription list and pound day. Both Committee and villagers are to be congratulated thereon.

Llwyngwril.—The Committee here are always energetic and extremely helpful with subscriptions, pound day, and Alexandra

Rose Day collection.

Towyn, I see, heads the list of subscriptions from collectors, due to the good work and organisation of the V.A.D. ladies, to whom our best thanks are given.

Penny Trail.—This was again a success; congratulations and thanks to those concerned.

Bwlch.—This Committee has again sent us in a welcome subscription list.

We have to thank the organisers of a Whist Drive at Llanegryn and also those of a Dance at Aberdovey.

Mrs. Tudor Jones has again shewn her interest in the Hospital by instituting a Jumble Sale for our funds, which resulted in a generous cheque.

The Towyn Carol Singers, per Mrs. Pink, at Christmas time sent us £6 18s. 3d. and are heartily thanked.

Mr. W. T. Owen, The Garage, has as usual given his services in connection with our electric light engine and ambulance work, and I am sure merits our best thanks.

Mr. Wm. Rowlands has to be thanked for kindly painting the new name board free of cost.

The maintenance of the Hospital has increased, partly owing to the extremely high price of coal and coke during most of the year and to the fact that we have more mouths to feed. We also had to replate our electric light battery at a cost of £68.

The Hospital Staff have worked well, Mr. and Mrs. Hughes having more than justified their appointment.

Mrs. Dowthwaite has as usual been the mainstay of the Hospital. It is a great relief to those managing its finances to be able to rely upon her generosity. Her X-Ray plant is doing even better work than last year.

Ambulance.—The Red Cross Society have recently sold our old Ambulance—it was quite out of date and worthless for our purpose. When our finances improve we must procure a new one. But meanwhile it would be extremely awkward should a critical case need conveying to the Hospital.

Endowment Fund. This has not been added to during the year.

In thanking the Officers and Committee for their help at all times, I should like specially to mention our Matron, Miss Parry, whose efficient handling of the Institution makes my work in connection with it a pleasure.

Yours faithfully,

F. H. AWDRY, HON. SEC.
